

Learn more about Massillon natives and their contributions through the Massillon Public Art Project: Street Signs! Created in 2013, this project was brought to you by ArtsinStark, the City of Massillon, and the Massillon Museum, inspired by the exhibition, Snap! In the Photobooth with Andy Warhol & Friends. This collaborative project between past and present Massillonians has since been removed from the streets, but the signs live on here!